Conference Agenda

Today's event is an opportunity to identify and prioritize strategic investments in transportation, water, and energy, as well as develop policy recommendations for how the federal government can invest more directly in the metropolitan hubs that drive the Great Lakes Megaregion's economy.

The America 2050 effort is supported by the Rockefeller Foundation, Surdna Foundation, and Lincoln Institute of Land Policy.

Local sponsors of the conference and the evening film screening include the American Society of Civil Engineers, Builders Association, Christopher B. Burke Engineering, Ltd., CN, Illinois American Water, Illinois Railroad Association, and NIPSCO.

The Metropolitan Planning Council and Regional Plan Association are extremely grateful to our funders and sponsors.
